

Coin-a-Phrase Prize

SEP 11 1965
Donated to Church Fund

The St. Anthony's Catholic Church building fund will be richer by $200 shortly because Miss Gertrude S. Altman of 2121 21st Ave. has won The Tribune's sixth and final Coin-A-Phrase contest.

"I'm a member of the church and they're erecting a new building," Miss Altman said after being informed that she had won. "So I think I'll donate the money to the building fund."

Miss Altman, a piano and violin teacher, won the contest in her second try at it. She arranged correctly the key words published in The Tribune into: "Nice Work if You Can Get It."

Her entry was drawn first among other correct guesses.

Other winners were, for $50: Mrs. M. Pinnella, 46 Miramonte Drive, Moraga; Carl E. Welch, 5183 La Corte Bonita, Concord; and Mrs. Sally Thomas, 302 Ada Drive, Martinez.

Winners of $25 were: Willella Ford, 6020 Majestic Ave., Oakland; F. E. Wilcox, 541 Boulevard Way, Piedmont; Robert L. Heck, 4 Madoline St., Pittsburg; and Jane M. Anderson, 6836 Langmuir Lane, Dublin.

The $10 winners were: Mrs. Ann Williamson, 212 Sunnyside Ave., Piedmont; Mrs. L. G. Longacre, 1777 Farm Bureau Road, Concord; Mrs. Ray Mendoza, 683 42nd St., Oakland; Mrs. June M. Thaw, 6 Vianne Court, Orinda; and Florence Young, 2225 Seventh Ave.
